VENEZIANISCHE MESSE MAGIC MOMENTS MIX DREAMS WITH REALITY

DU EWIG JUNGES FEST DER SINNE

When Duke Carl Eugen of Württemberg holidayed in Venice in 1767, he so enjoyed the city's famous carnival that he took the idea home. The next year, the first glittering Venezianische Messe opened on Ludwigsburg's elegant market square. Everyone in town wore glamorous Venetian-style masks!

Reintroduced in 1993, the three-day Venezianische Messe transforms the heart of Ludwigsburg every two years. This sparkling international festival boasts a top-class programme, with everything from live music, street theatre and acrobats to dancers, singers, stilt walkers and jesters. The sight of 2,000 dazzling costumes and masks is breathtaking. Think Mediterranean flair and fun meet Baroque style and local charm. Past and present conjure up a dream world.

This unique festival for the senses is from September 11 - 13, 2020.
Come and join us!
